Re: Stanley v. Mount Sinai Health System, et al.
21 Civ. 4619 (VEC) (VF)

Dear Judge Caproni:

On behalf of our clients, Mount Sinai Morningside and Stephanie Guareno, and pursuant to the Court's Individual Practices in Civil Cases 2(C), I write to request: (i) an adjournment of the pretrial conference scheduled for December 16, 2022 at 10:00 a.m. and (ii) that the pretrial conference be converted to a remote proceeding. The reasons for these requests are: (i) we have a deposition scheduled in another case on December 16, 2022 and the discovery deadline in that case is December 16 and (ii) I am having mobility issues that will make appearing in Court in-person very difficult. This is the second request for an adjournment of the pretrial conference. The first time, the parties requested that the pretrial conference be adjourned until a date after the settlement conference was held. That request was granted.

We consulted with counsel for Plaintiff, Joseph Myers, and he consents to these requests. Counsel for both parties are available on January 3, January 4, and January 6.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Rory J. McEvoy

Application GRANTED in part. The initial pretrial conference scheduled for December 16, 2022, is hereby ADJOURNED. The parties must meet and confer and, by no later than December 15, 2022, propose at least two alternative dates before January 13, 2023, to hold the initial pretrial conference. Absent extraordinary circumstances, the conference shall take place in person in Courtroom 443 of the Thurgood Marshall Courthouse, 40 Foley Square, New York, New York, 10007.

SO ORDERED.
